Former members FIPB quizzed before Karti arrest

SURAJEET DASGUPTA

Union finance minister P Chidambaram and his son, Karti, came under the glare of investigations for the foreign investment and Indrani Media and in company Aircel. They were cleared when Karti was in charge of the ministry in the UPA govapprovals were routed through the Foreign Investment Promotion Board in the department of economic affairs for the finance ministry. Those who were secretary-in-charge of the nodal ministry in the department, the secretary in the chaired FIPB, the secretary in the department of commerce and of economic affairs were permanent members of the board. Karti Chidambaram is in the Central Bureau of Investigation in the INX case. He had said last year that the INX secretaries who were in FIPB during the INX case that did not qualify for automatic approval needed to be routed through FIPB before the body was abolished last year. The former secretary, quoted above, said the FIPB secretariat — manned by director, deputy secretary and under-secretary level officials — prepared documentation relating to the cases. "FIPB members took decisions based on those documents and then these were put up to the finance minister for final approval."

Chidambaram has been quoted earlier as saying he would go by the FIPB decision as a matter of routine.

The Maxis case preceded INX. It began when the Malaysia-based group wanted to enter the telecom sector in 2006. It wanted to buy 99.3 per cent stake in Aircel from C Sivasankaran, despite the fact that the rules did not allow more than 74 per cent foreign direct investment in the sector at that time.

The second alleged violation was when Maxis asked for permission to invest ₹35 billion and got permission from FIPB. Under the rules, any proposal over ₹6 billion had to go to the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA) for a final green signal. Yet, this one only went to P Chidambaram, who endorsed it.
