

Marico unveils plans to achieve net-zero emissions by 2040

FMCG major Marico on Thursday announced plans to achieve net-zero emissions in its global operations by 2040. Multiple sustainability initiatives across the global operations to curb greenhouse gas emissions and promoting a carbon-neutral business agenda will be introduced, the firm said. PTI